Directions: Please answer each of the questions given below as best you can. The space provided should be adequate, but if more space is needed, please attach additional pages.

1. Please give a brief statement on why you are seeking employment in our district.

2. I believe I am qualified for the job sought because:

3. What do you want to accomplish as a teacher?

4. How would you go about finding out about students' attitudes and feelings about your class?

5. An experienced teacher offers you the following advice: "When you are teaching, be sure to command the respect of your students immediately and all will go well." How do you feel about this?

6. A parent comes to you and complains that what you are teaching his child is irrelevant to the child's needs. How would you respond?

7. What do you think will (does) provide you the greatest pleasure in teaching?

8. How do you go about deciding what should be taught in your class?

9. How do you go about finding what students are good at?

10. Would you rather try a lot of way-out teaching strategies or would you rather try to perfect the approaches which work best for you? Explain your position.

11. Do you like to teach with an overall plan in mind for the year, or would you rather just teach some interesting things and let the process determine the results. Explain your position.

12. If there were absolutely no restricts placed upon you, what would you most want to do in life?

13. A student is doing poorly in your class. You talk to him and he tells you that he considers you to be the poorest teacher he has ever met. What should you do?
